

Society and Organizations :
From routines to movements – and back

8:00- Shuttle service will take registered participants in Paris close to the recommended hotels (in the 15th district) directly to HEC campus.

8h30: Arrivals at HEC and coffee

9h-9h15: Welcome by Rodolphe Durand, Damon Golsorkhi, Christine Musselin

9h15-10h00: Martha Feldman (UC Irvine, USA), From Routine Dynamics to Capabilities Dynamics

10h00-10h30: Provocateur David Seidl (Zurich University, Switzerland) comments & interaction with the audience

Coffee break

10h45-11h30: Mike Lounsbury, (Alberta, Canada): Under Pressure: Community Amplification of Anti-Toxics Protest

11h30-12h00: Provocateur Julie Battilana (Harvard BS), comments & interaction with the audience

12h15-13h45: Lunch

13h45h-14h30: Huggy Rao (Stanford, USA): Trouble In Store: Probes, Protests and Store Openings by Walmart; 1998-2005

14h30-15h: Provocateur Erhard Friedberg (Sc Po Paris), comments & interaction with the audience

15h-15h45: Sarah Soule (Stanford, USA): The Consequences of Unclear Organizational Identity: Repression and Disbanding of US Women's Protest Organizations, 1960-1990

15h45-16h15h: Provocateur, Frank den Hond (VU, Amsterdam) comments & interaction with the audience

16h15-16h45: Pause

16h45-17h30: Francesca Polletta (UC Irvine, USA) : Ideological underpinnings of movement strategy. How culture shapes instrumental rationality?

17h30-18h: Provocateur Quy Huy (Insead), comments & interaction with the audience

18h-18h15: Synthesis and conclusion: Rodolphe Durand:

Shuttle service, back to Paris

20h30 : Social event