

Friday, June 25th, 2010

Society and Organizations :
From routines to movements – and back

8h30: Arrivals at HEC and coffee

9h-9h15: Welcome by Rodolphe Durand, Damon Golsorkhi, Christine Musselin

9h15-10h00: Martha Feldman (UC Irvine, USA), From Routine Dynamics to Dynamic Capabilities ; co-author Claus Rerup (Richard Ivey School of Business)

10h00-10h30: Provocateur David Seidl (Zurich University, Switzerland)

10h30-10h45 : Coffee break

10h45-11h30: Mike Lounsbury, (Alberta, Canada):

Under Pressure : Community Amplification of Protest and Corporate Response ; co-author Min-Dong Paul Lee (University of South Florida)

11h30-12h00: Provocateur Julie Battilana (Harvard BS)

12h15-13h30: Lunch

13h45h-14h30: Huggy Rao (Stanford, USA): Laws of Attraction : Do Store Openings by Walmart increase when one crosses the Border of States with Right to Work Laws ? co-authors Lori Qingyuan Yue (Columbia University) and Paul Ingram (Columbia University)

14h30-15h: Provocateur Erhard Friedberg (Sc Po Paris)

15h-15h45: Sarah Soule (Stanford, USA): The Consequences of Boundary Spanning : Repression and Disbanding of US Women's Protest Organizations ; co-author Magali Fassiotto (Stanford Graduate School of Business)

15h45-16h15h: Provocateur, Frank den Hond (VU, Amsterdam)

16h15-16h45: Coffee break

16h45-17h30: Francesca Polletta (UC Irvine, USA) : When Movements do not Innovate ;
co-author Nicole Doerr (UC Irvine, USA)

17h30-18h: Provocateur Quy Huy (Insead)

18h-18h15: Synthesis and conclusion: Rodolphe Durand

18h45:Shuttle service, two buses, one to take you to “Musée du Vin” in Paris and one to take you back to Metro “Porte de Versailles” and Metro “Balard”

20h30 : Social event

Musée du vin
Rue des Eaux
5 Square Charles Dickens
75016 PARIS
www.museeduvinparis.com